Reflections

In today's gospel reading we learn of Jesus' ministry in the Galilee and that he was praised by everyone. We go on to learn that he read from the prophet Isaiah at a synagogue where he announces God's mission to his hearers – a mission of good news to the poor, release for captives, recovery of sight to the blind, liberty to the oppressed, and one where God's favour is proclaimed.

- Lord, loose me from anything that binds me in mind, body or spirit, so that I might share in the glorious freedom you offer to all who listen to your voice.
- Give thanks for the Daehan Seong Gong Hoe, the Anglican Church of Korea.

Mothers' union worldwide

*Jesus bids us shine,
You in your small corner,
And I in mine.*

From the beginning of his ministry Jesus reached out into the corners of his world: into the mire of political double dealing with Matthew the tax collector, to those excluded by religious and racial bigotry – the sick and maimed, the Canaanite 'dogs'. They were struggling to survive in their small corner and Jesus opened a way of life that makes ALL things new. For Christ each small corner is a beacon of community love, for we are the Body of Christ.

And the one who was seated on the throne said, "See, I am making all things new." Also he said, "Write this, for these words are trustworthy and true." Revelation 21:5

We pray this week for the Anglican diocese of False Bay, South Africa. Its bishop is Margaret Vertue, the second woman to be elected as a bishop of the Anglican Church of Southern Africa and of the whole African continent. Margaret was educated at the Convent of the Holy Family in Kimberley and studied at St Paul's Theological College, Grahamstown (now the College of the Transfiguration), at Stellenbosch University and at St Beuno's, North Wales. She was ordained as one of the first woman priests by Archbishop Desmond Tutu in September 1992, elected bishop on 3 October 2012 and consecrated on 19 January 2013 by the Most Reverend Thabo Makgoba, Archbishop of Cape Town.

Trust in the Lord with all your heart; do not depend on your own understanding. Seek his will in all you do, and he will show you which path to take.

Proverbs 3:5-6, (NLT)

BAILIWICK

In 1937, Walter Morrison and his future wife Lucille were tossing a popcorn lid to each other on the beach. It was fun but it dented easily. So they started using cake pans which were more robust. Despite the pan only costing them 5 cents, someone watching them offered to buy it off them for 25 cents. Inspired, they bought a load of them and began selling them on the beach as Flyin' Cake Pans and a business was born.

After the second world war, Morrison designed a more aerodynamic flying disc which he called the Whirlo-Way (after the 1941 Triple-Crown winning racehorse, Whirlaway). He and his business partner Warren Franscioni began producing these items in plastic in 1948.

However, the media frenzy surrounding the supposed crash of a UFO at Roswell in 1947 prompted another name change: henceforth they were renamed Flyin-Saucers. People were at first doubtful as to whether or not the discs were hovering or on invisible threads. So they began a sales pitch stating that the discs were free but that the invisible thread cost a dollar. Suddenly, everyone wanted one and the business began to take off.

By 1954 Morrison, was running the business on his own. It was then that he discovered he could actually make the discs cheaper than the firm who were producing them for him. He redesigned it slightly to improve its aerodynamic stability and called it the Pluto Platter. On 23 January 1957 he sold the rights to the Pluto Platter to the Wham-O toy company but still owned the patent. Independently, students at Yale had begun tossing their own empty pie tins about. These were all supplied by the Frisbie Pie Company and had their name stamped on the tins. Hence the students called them Frisbies. Within 6 months of selling the Pluto Platter, it had been named the Frisbee (sic) and they have been called that ever since.

Morrison thought it a ridiculous name but it has had longevity and is trademarked – official frisbees can only be made by that company. Millions are sold each year. Morrison reaped a huge profit from his idea, despite its name.

Sometimes a small idea can prove to be a world-beater. Our own faith started with a small handful of men and women in Galilee but is now the largest religion in the world. Our ideas can, when properly shaped, transform the planet. All we need is courage to put them into practice.

Containers fo.r Change: You can again lodge your containers at the office building or continue lodgment of your own recyclables quoting St Paul's ID C10219498 at any recycling centre and this payment will go directly to the St Paul's account.

Invitation to join the 'Prayer Shawl Ministry'

Prayer Shawls are crocheted or knitted and interwoven with the yarn are prayers of love and support for the recipient. Those who receive the handmade expressions of love are buoyed by the spiritual comfort they experience while wearing their prayer shawls. The shawls range from "granny squares" of simple design, stocking stitch, garter stitch to cables and lacework wraps or scarves. These shawls have been called "hug rugs". They are for women, men, children, in fact, anyone who needs a hug.

Colourful prayer shawls are intended to brighten lives, triggering spiritual sustenance in the giving and receiving of these prayer shawls. The shawls may be used to give comfort to the bereaved, the unwell, the elderly, the isolated or lonely, those in nursing homes who are seemingly forgotten. Similarly, support is offered for those awaiting surgery, experiencing difficult pregnancy, still births, terminal diagnosis of a loved one or extended medical procedures such as chemotherapy or dialysis and the carers.

"Seldom can the heart be lonely if it seeks a lonelier still. Self forgetting seeking only emptier cups of love to fill". Those who use their skill to crochet or knit prayer shawls are also blessed in the gifting of the shawls which are beyond price to the recipient.

If you would like to become involved in the 'Prayer Shawl Ministry' please leave a message with the Parish Office ph. 3812 0377 or Jayne Ware m. 0412 730 547

St Paul's Ipswich current COVID Policy:

St Paul's aims to provide the safest possible environment for our parishioners, staff, volunteers, and those who attend church events.

1. Proof of double vaccination or of a registered medical exemption are required to attend 8:30 am services on a Sunday, other than in the following circumstances:

- Funerals

The Health Directives do not exclude the unvaccinated from funerals.

- Weddings

The Health Directives state that if a non-vaccinated person is on the guest list or the couple do not wish to establish the vaccination status of attendees, the number of attendees is limited to 20.

- Visitors to the Offices

People who are not fully vaccinated (e.g. a member of a funeral family) will be permitted to visit the Parish Office at the Rector's discretion. 24 hours' notice must be given, and a mask must be worn

- Other Services

A 7:00am said service will be offered each Sunday which will not require people to be vaccinated. Due to the high number of people who attend the Christmas Eve and Midnight Mass services, and the fact that a relatively small number of vulnerable regular parishioners attend these services, vaccination status will not be checked. In order that we offer a service on Christmas Day to those who are not vaccinated, the 6:30am service will not require that people be vaccinated.

2. All persons present on site must wear a mask.

3. The policy applies to all people 16 years and over.

4. The policy applies to all activities other than those outlined in 1.a-d.

5. The policy applies to all contractors and suppliers who attend the site.

6. If hired to an external party the hiring party will operate under the restrictions appropriate to the event:

<https://www.business.qld.gov.au/running-business/covid-19-restrictions/vaccination-restrictions> and will provide the parish with the appropriate waiver.

NOTICE BOARD

Transport needed

A parishioner living at One Mile requires a regular lift to (not from) the St Paul's 8.30am church service on Sunday. If anyone can offer her support in this way, even if only once a month, could you please leave a message with the Parish Office by phoning 3812 0377.

Readers, Intercessors and Liturgical Assistants Roster

The new roster for the 8:30am Sunday service will commence on 6 February 2022. In accordance with parish policy, everyone attending this service must be double vaccinated against Covid 19. If you feel called to be an intercessor or reader in this very important part of ministry please contact me. I anticipate that the new roster will run for 6 to 7 months so I would appreciate knowing of any planned time away. Des. Hunt phone 0419 775 918 or email dvhunt@bigpond.com

If you or anyone you know would like to receive a visit, phone call, in-home Holy Communion, or Pastoral Care in any way, could you please inform the St Paul's Parish Office (3201 0377) or Shelley (0419 656 037). If you are unsure if the person or their family would like this passed on, please either ask them or let the clergy know and they will follow it up. Often we find out about someone being unwell from a third person and are unaware of what is happening for them, so even if you think we know could you please let us know anyway. We really want to support those of our St Paul's family who cannot come to Church but are struggling for some reason.
